Anna Meliksetian Projects is pleased to present "Interchange," a group exhibition featuring works by internationally renowned artists John Baldessari, Mustafa Hulusi, Jim Shaw, and Marnie Weber, as well as younger emerging artists, who are influenced directly or indirectly by their work. One of the highlights of the exhibition will be a special unveiling of a new 40-foot painting by Los Angeles based artist Jim Shaw!

Exchange LA is a spectacular nightclub in a historical building located on 618 S. Spring Street in downtown LA. The building formerly housed the Los Angeles Stock Exchange and is now a historical landmark. "Interchange" will be on the ground floor in the Art Gallery. The After Party will take place upstairs in the club. Visit <http://www.exchangela.com> for more information.

ACLA Art Center Los Angeles is an official sponsor of the After Party at Exchange LA. Part of the proceeds will be donated to the ACLA Art Center Los Angeles. Please join us for this exciting event!

ACLA Art Center Los Angeles is a 501 (c) (3), non-profit organization. Founded in 2009, our mission is to educate, inspire, and connect Los Angeles communities with contemporary art. Along with hosting fresh and unusual exhibitions and events in our mini-museum space on Pico, we also work with artists, members, and the community to produce a series of editions and other exciting ongoing, off-site projects. The ACLA has had exhibitions with Vienna-based artist Hans Weigand and Berlin-based artist Dennis Loesch and numerous editions with major LA artists, Bara, Alex Becera, Stefan Behlau, Andrew Birk, Elijah Blue, Andre Butzer, Samantha Gregg, Charles Hollis Jones, Matt Jones, Justin Lowe & Jonah Freeman, Bruce Kalberg, Dennis Loesch, Jonah Olson, Allison Schulnik, Juli Susin, Dani Tull, Henry Vincent, Hans Weigand, Eric Yahnker, and more. Stay tuned for more information on our upcoming schedule (our website is currently under development).
